Board of Directors

Failure to report or attend 3 consecutive Board meetings shall constitute resignation from the Board. 5/10

Deaths

1. In the event of the death of a member, $100. Will be given to National, in their memory. Funds will be taken from the HEG Memorial Fund. 1/21
2. In the event of the death of the spouse or child of a member, $50 will be given to the HEG Memorial Fund. 8/18
3. Other memorial gifts will be made at the discretion of the HEG Board. 5/10

Education/Workshops

1. The primary task of the Education Chairman is to monitor all national educational programs and services and keep the chapter informed of these possibilities for participation. 10/16
2. Additionally, the Education Chairman is in charge of all correspondence courses, including the mechanics of choice, sign-up, costs, and time and place. 10/16
3. The Workshop Chairman handles all "limited member" workshops. 10/16
4. A "limited member" workshop is one that is usually held at some time other than during a regularly scheduled meeting. The number of participants is limited by the teacher who is conducting the class or workshop. 10/16
5. The Workshop Chairman shall present all workshops to the Board for approval. 10/16
6. Teaching fees will be determined on a case-by-case basis, taking into consideration the current going rate. 10/16
7. When a workshop is scheduled, an Email blast will be sent out to all HEG members. If the class has not filled after at least a month, it will be offered to other EGA members of the South Central Region. 10/16
8. A $50 non-refundable deposit will secure initial enrollment in a workshop. Paying this deposit constitutes commitment on the part of the participant to pay the balance of class fees when they come due. Workshop enrollment is handled on a first-come/first-serve basis. In the even the class does not make, the deposit will be refunded. Registrations from SCR members (those who are non-HEG members) will need to include the cost of a plural membership in HEG in additional to the $50 non-refundable deposit. 10/16

9. Prior to the date of the class, the remaining expenses – teacher fee, location cost, teacher's expenses, such as housing, food, and transportation, etc. - will be divided between all the participants equally. Estimated class fees will be based on 15 participants. Every participant must pay all fees before class. 10/16
10. Workshop tuition will be paid for the member who houses the teacher. The student will pay the kit fee. 5/10
No further payment will be given to the member, without prior Board approval. 11/10
11. The class Angel will receive a charm. 10/16
12. Because a student is obligated to the class after registration, if she finds she will be unable to attend, she may sell her place in the class to the next member on the wait list. If there is no wait list, she may sell her place to any eligible EGA member. This exchange, including financial obligations should take place between the parties concerned. 10/16
13. No refund will be made of deposit or class fees if a substitute participant is not available. 10/16
14. A student who cancels a class after registration and who has not paid the balance of fees due or transferred her spot in the class to another participant, shall be barred from signing up for another workshop for two years. This may be appealed to the Board if unusual circumstances exist. 10/16
15. There will be no refund to a non-attending student, but assuming all class fees are paid in full, the kit will be delivered to that participant who will be responsible for paying any postage fees. 10/16
16. There will be no buying a kit without paying full class fees. 10/16
17. The HEG Board may decide at its discretion to subsidize any workshop on a case-by-case basis. 9/21

Exhibits

1. Exhibits in any HEG judged or juried show must have been a member of HEG for at least 6 months prior to the show date. 5/10
2. Exhibits shall be held every 3 to 5 years or at the discretion of the board. 5/10
